

Nagging

by David Almond

I was always a careless girl.

But I changed once
I married someone worse than me.

He often doesn't take what he needs.

He easily forgets
what we just talked about.

Also he does things wrong
very frequently.

So I have to nag him
like a mother sometimes

One day, I asked Alex to throw the rubbish away as it was his job.

3 recycle bins,
2 normal rubbish bags
and a box of wine.

That day, we had lots to throw away.

May asked me for help.

So I went to help him but I couldn't see the wine box in his hands.

I knew that he would say something as always!

May answered me with a soft voice..

Well....

Well done!!!!

Yes...
